Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Terms that make the claims indefinite include: "the flange" in claim 13. This claim should be dependent on claim 12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1, 2, 4, 6-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Heinrichs. Heinrichs is cited showing a drawer with a bottom 6 an upstanding peripheral wall structure including the side and back walls of the strong box. Please note that the term "integral" means whole, entire, essential for completion and is not the same as for example - - unitary - -. The front wall 3 of the strong box is considered to be a partition and the top 2 is a tray mounted to a peripheral wall at the back of the strong box and in the closed position the tray is below the peripheral walls at the edges of the bottom wall of the drawer. Heinrich discloses a lock, col. 1, line 38, is provided. Therefore any well-known lock can be used with the box including key-actuated mechanisms with slotted keeper structure.

Allowable Subject Matter

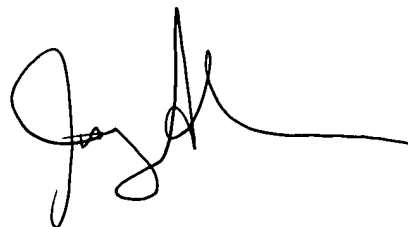

Claims 3 and 13 or a tray with flanges supported on the peripheral wall for sliding movement as in claim 3 added to claim 6 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
